Dear Bill:

It was good to see you at the dinner for His Excellency Wu Xueqian at the State Department a few weeks ago. As I briefly mentioned to you, we are in the process of putting together our Spring program and would be honored to have you join us in Chicago for either a breakfast, luncheon or dinner briefing next February or March.

I have enclosed updated background material on the Mid-America Committee for your review. [redacted] Program Director for the Committee, will be in touch with your office to discuss possible dates.

Again, it was good to see you in Washington. I look forward to working out a mutually convenient date and welcoming you to Chicago.

Best personal regards,
